

Bay-Waveland to reassign students

BY CHARLEE MARSHALL
The Bay-Waveland school board met Tuesday for a special meeting which included talk about reassigning students now attending Waveland Elementary School to North Bay Elementary School, due to overcrowding.

The area where students will be reassigned includes that west of Washington Avenue to Bay St. Louis city limits and south of Highway 90.

Superintendent Paul Tisdale pointed out that some Bay St. Louis students had been reassigned to Waveland about six years ago. He said he had talked with a previous superintendent who informed him of the reassignment.

Tisdale addressed the increase in student enrollment and the implications that overcrowding has on maintaining the district's accreditation at Level Three. Attendance is about about 80 students over last year, he said.

"We have some decisions to make," Tisdale told the board members.

His office had made a count of students, grade by grade, and found "a slight bulge" in kindergarten and grades 1 and 3 and found from 2-4 students over room capacity in those areas.

Tisdale advised the board on several options to deal with the problem and said rooms that might be available for expansion included three at North Bay Elementary. Waveland Elementary has only one room that possibly can be used, he said.

It was decided by the board that, to accommodate the students and maintain the schools' present accreditation standards, the attendance lines would have to be redefined and steps taken to prevent the situation from happening next

Getting a lift

Workers use a crane and other heavy equipment to place a tanker back on the railroad tracks after a derailment Wednesday night in Bay St. Louis. Five cars in the CSX transportation train overturned in the area of Ballentine. There were no injuries and no spills but there were several thousand dollars worth of damage. The cause of the derailment is under investigation. (Echo staff photo by Charlee Marshall)

Depot purchase expected soon

BY MARY G. SEILEY
Bay St. Louis' purchase of the old CSX depot has reached "a critical stage" in the acquisition process, consultant Mike Cuevas said Friday.

The purchase, pending for months, should be completed by the end of September, said Cuevas, with actual restoration underway by January. The work should be completed nine to 12 months after that, she said.

City plans to buy and restore the historic two-story structure have hit a number of roadblocks, but officials have cleared one hurdle after another in their quest to get the project moving. Environmental and property title questions hung over the depot for weeks.

The latest roadblock is city compliance with the federal Uniform Relocation Act, said Cuevas. Making sure the city does meet all the act's requirements is critical, she said.

The relocation act was put in place primarily to make sure private property owners receive fair market value when federal agencies acquire property for public projects, such as highway construction.

In the case of the depot, CSX and the city long ago agreed on an $86,000 purchase price. And CSX is relocating itself to a new office the company is constructing near the old depot.

But the federal relocation law requires that an appraisal be done by a professional certified by the state, said Cuevas. That appraisal recently was completed by the firm of Poulos Hebert & Associates of Gulfport. Now a review appraisal is being conducted by Everett Ladner of Gulfport.

Cuevas said if the city had bought the depot without following the relocation act's requirements, Bay St. Louis could have lost eligibility for the $580,000 Federal Transportation Enhancement Fund grant that's been set aside for the project.

Cuevas works with Community Associates, a Biloxi consulting firm the city hired to manage the project. The firm has been working with state and federal Department of Transportation officials who are in charge of the grant funding.

"They want this project to work," Cuevas said of transportation officials who see it as an opportunity to bring national recognition to the grant program that's financing it. "There's not another project even in Louisiana or Alabama that will rival this one. This depot is the only one of its type and kind in Mississippi."

Cuevas said while the delays with the project have been frustrating, there is a silver lining to that cloud. Since casino construction has slowed in recent months, contractors and craftsmen will be more readily available — and perhaps at a lower price — than if the project had gone out for bids earlier.

Ban on Henderson casino questioned

BY MARY G. SEILEY
A top official of the state Gaming Commission has second thoughts about writing a rule that would forever ban a casino at Henderson Point, near Gulfshore Baptist Assembly.

Chuck Patton, assistant director of the commission, said Thursday he's not sure such a rule would be wise. "I can see the possibility the day would come when the church would want a casino there."

No, never, said Dr. Paul Jones. "That's about as silly an idea as I have ever heard," said Jones, executive director of the Christian Action Commission of the Mississippi Baptist Convention.

Hundreds of Baptists and residents of Henderson Point and Pass Christian rallied against plans by Spectrum Gaming Inc. to put a casino near Gulfshore Baptist Assembly. Opposition to the project was so hot that Spectrum dropped its plans for it before the state Gaming Commission discussed the matter formally.

At a meeting in July, hundreds of spectators burst into applause as the three commissioners and the agency's director went on record strongly agreeing that Henderson Point is an unsuitable site for a casino.

Commission staffers said while the site Spectrum had chosen is a legal one, its proximity to a major religious facility rendered it a poor choice.

They agreed to consider a regulation that would ban any casino locating within a certain

Telethon to help MDA on WLOX

BY SHARON K. SAUCIER
Muscular dystrophy is a disease that affects hundreds of people in Mississippi. This weekend, coast residents will be able to help these people through the annual Jerry Lewis Muscular Dystrophy Telethon, with all of the money raised in Mississippi staying in Mississippi.

The telethon will be sponsored locally by the Waveland Civic Association and will be coordinated by association member Louis Smolensky.

"We want to thank everyone for their support that they have given us over the years. Without the help of the volunteers and the community we wouldn't be where we are today," Smolensky said.

This will be the first year that the telethon will be broadcast from a Mississippi television station.

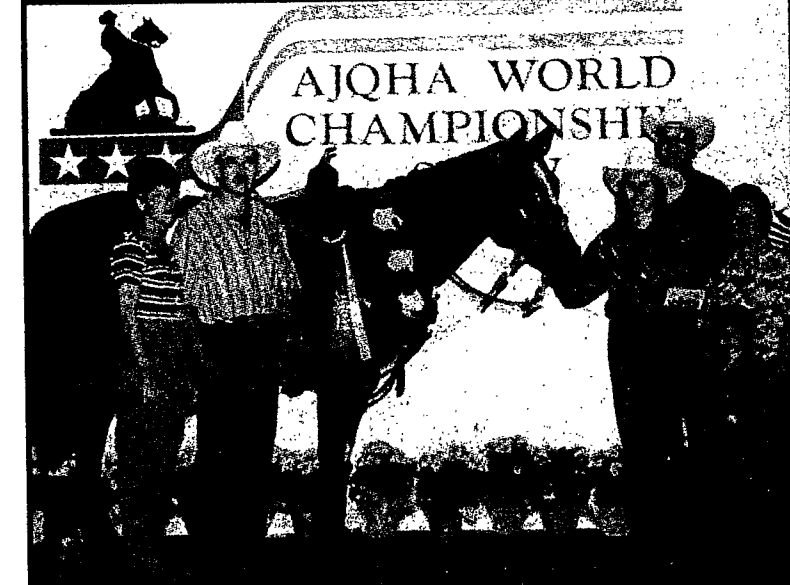

WLOX-TV 13 will be broadcasting the "The Stars Across America" telethon live from 10:30 p.m. today until 6 p.m. Monday.

Local residents can call Charlie Henderson Ford at 467-9005 if they would like to volunteer or contribute to this worthy cause. Phone lines at Charlie Henderson will be open from 8:30 a.m. today until 6 p.m. Monday.

The Waveland Civic Association, in conjunction with the cities of Bay St. Louis and Waveland, and also the Hancock County Supervisors, will be hosting a fireworks show tonight beginning at 8:30 p.m. at the Garfield Ladner Memorial Pier in Waveland.

The civic association needs the community support that it

REFLECTIONS ON LIFE
By Father Jerome LeDoux, SVD

Have you read your Bible lately? If you did, did you have the feeling that Jesus was talking both to the disciples of his time and to you personally? Or did the Bible reading seem to be something of the dusty past with no current relevance?

Take the multiplication of loaves, for instance. That is surely an outstanding miracle which demonstrates the divinity of Jesus and his authentic mission from his heavenly Father. But does anything of the sort happen today? No.

So, apart from the apologetics of showing the divine origin of Jesus, of what relevance to us now is the spectacular miracle of the multiplication of loaves? Jesus even suggests that the miracle caused negative results in some people:

"Amen, amen I say to you, you are looking for me not because you saw signs, but because you ate the loaves and were filled. Do not work for food that perishes but for the food that endures for eternal life" (Jn. 6: 26-27).

Mark even says the disciples themselves did not understand the self-revelation of Jesus: "They had not understood the incident of the loaves. On the contrary, their hearts were hardened" (Mk. 6: 52).

There is a stern message here for all of us above and beyond the self-revelation of Jesus. Today's message from Jesus might very well be: Quit wasting loaves! Share them!

A couple of weeks ago, a friend gave me some surplus commodity goods when she discovered that I was on the lookout for food to give the homeless and hungry. Incredibly, she had been throwing her surplus food away.

"I didn't know you collected food like that," she apologized. "No one told me that I should save any of the commodity items which I cannot use. I'm sorry. From now on, I will certainly save everything I don't use."

Mason have qualified. For the position of Waveland alderman for Ward 1, John Thomas Longo has qualified as a Democrat and Richard R. Fitch as Republican.

In Ward 2, Bob Hubbard and Aline Keating have qualified as Democrats and Al Jacobi and Jay Fleuriot have qualified to run as Republicans.

In Ward 3, Ralph D. West Jr. is the only candidate qualified thus far and he has qualified as a Republican.

In Ward 4, Al Kingston Jr. has qualified as a Democrat and Richard C. Beasey has qualified as a Republican.

The final qualifying date is Oct. 7 and the general election will be held on Dec. 6.

Sermon will be of the song variety

BY CHARLEE MARSHALL
Rev. Dwyn Mounger has been working on Sunday's sermon for months. He is retired now, (he's 88) but will deliver the message at First Presbyterian Church in Bay St. Louis, where he was pastor from 1968-1988.

He laughingly said that he's warned the congregation about what is to come. He will not be preaching fire and brimstone but hopes to enchant the congregation with the subject of his message, "The High Life — I Will Lift Mine Eyes to the Hills."

Rev. Mounger is planning to sing his sermon — yes, SING IT! He tried to explain how all of this came about. His basic love for music naturally led him to sing in the church choir. Well, the choir is a little short on members, so he volunteered to sing a solo.

He often sang himself to sleep to pass the time when his wife fell and broke her hip and had to be hospitalized. He was lonely and worried about her and singing seemed to help, he said.

Rev. Mounger will sing a cappella (without musical accompaniment). He orchestrated the sermon in song in his heart and only had one collaborator — the Lord himself.

year. Tisdale was directed by the board to adjust the attendance lines, which he said he would do, so parents could be notified.

Tisdale advised the board that siblings of rerouted students, who are in the second grade, could be reassigned along with their brothers and/or sisters.

The board also approved a future plan for the superintendent to start working on plans to add to the system a 4-classroom modular unit to add more space for temporary classrooms.

The board discussed a plan where all students would re-register, approximately two weeks prior to the beginning of school, to give administrators a better student head count and the chance to look at the numbers.

"We are to the point where we are about to burst at the seams," Tisdale said.

Also discussed was the probability of having to add teachers. The board authorized Tisdale to secure three more elementary teachers and two teacher assistants for kindergarten and first grade.

"We are rapidly running out of options," said board member Richard Flowers.

The board authorized Tisdale to secure three more elementary teachers and two teacher assistants for kindergarten and first grade.

During other business conducted at the special meeting, Tisdale recommended to the board the hiring of Dianne Spraberry as principal of Bay Middle School.

The board moved to accept the hiring of personnel for non-certified positions which included Loretta Thomas, Cheryl Rasbury and Douglas Farmer.

Tisdale explained in a further meeting with the Echo that passing guardianship to relatives or others for "school purposes" was not allowed. The school board sets attendance within the district and there are few exceptions to the rule.

Those exceptions allow that the children of certified and non-certified instructional staff members may attend the schools where the parents are employed.

Bus transportation is to be worked out, Tisdale added, in order to make the transition as smooth as possible.

Labor Day will be observed Monday, but children in the Bay-Waveland School District will not return to school until Wednesday because teachers have a work day on Tuesday.

Patton said while such a regulation has been the subject of much discussion among commission staffers, it's not in proposal form. He said he doesn't believe the commission would adopt a regulation that requires

When asked if he could imagine a situation in which the Baptist Convention actually would benefit financially by a neighbor-casino, he said, "The Mississippi Baptist Convention can't be bought off."

Hancock County Chamber of Commerce's Morning Business Association is a very interesting program. Dan Morrison, executive director, Mississippi Enterprise for Technology (MsET), located at the Stennis Space Center, was the guest speaker.

The event was sponsored by Hancock Bank, and Morrison enlightened everyone about the agency that helps business become faster, smarter and better.

It is a non-profit organization and is funded by state and federal governments and NASA. It offers all kinds of assistance to business and professionals.

MsET can really help inventors, too.

I am sure you will be hearing a lot about MsET as time goes on.

Persons interested in further information can reach Morrison at 601 688-3144.

As long as I can remember, the United Way always had a breakfast to kick off its campaign in Hancock County, but things will be different this year.

In lieu of a breakfast, there will be a community project, which involves the painting of the Hancock County Child Development Center located at Washington and Third streets in Bay St. Louis.

Two Saturdays ago, Chuck Benvenuti, David Treutel Jr. and Jimmie Loiacano spray-washed the building in preparation for painting.

A sprayer was donated by Hubbard's Hardware, and supplies were donated by Taconi's Hardware for the cleaning of the building.

On Saturday, Sept. 12, a group of volunteers will gather to paint the building and also repair the playground equipment at the center.

Treutel, Betsy Ashman and Mark DeRussy are coordinating the work force and need all types of help.

Volunteers are needed, and they can bring their paint brushes, hammers, etc.

A large number of businesses have donated paint and other supplies to be used in the project.

A world of difference was made by the cleanup of the exterior of the building, and I am sure things will look great after the painting.

With enough help, the job can be accomplished by noon.

I understand refreshments will be provided for helpers.

I hope to see you at the Child Development Center next Saturday.

The United Way continues to work for everyone. Won't you help.

Hancock County is part of the United Way of South Mississippi, which includes Hancock, Harrison and Pearl River counties.

Harrison and Pearl River will also have special projects for Sept. 12.

The Waveland Civic Association's annual Labor Day fireworks will be tonight at 8:30 at the Garfield Ladner Memorial Fishing Pier.

Jay Lagasse, association president, said he is hoping since the sand beach has been restored it will draw more folks then ever before.

The fireworks are courtesy of Hancock County, Waveland, Bay St. Louis and a number of supporting businesses.

The Waveland Fire and Police Departments will assist with the fireworks.

Lagasse expects the display to last from one to two hours.

The Waveland Civic Association has been sponsoring the fireworks for some 27 years.

The organization consists of some 73 members and was founded some 29 years ago.

Another of the club's big events is the annual St. Patrick's Day parade in Waveland.

Lagasse urges all to come and view the 1994 fireworks display.

The Waveland Civic Association will again sponsor the annual Jerry Lewis Muscular Dystrophy Telethon starting tonight at 6.

Don't forget to make your contribution.

Louis Smolensky is once again the chairman for the big fund raiser in this area, and he will need your support.

THE PEOPLE'S BUSINESS

A Weekly Editorial
From Mississippi Economic Council

Small group causing big problems

It's a shocking fact that many of Mississippi's youth will have stolen a car before they are old enough to have a driver's license, will have committed rape before they have had their first date, and will have taken a life before they are old enough to understand the joy of creating one — but, it's true.

A small percentage of Mississippi's young people are committing a large percentage of the state's crime.

The state Commissioner of Public safety reported to the Mississippi Economic Council's Committee on Crime that approximately 65 percent of Mississippi's criminal activity is committed by juveniles under the age of 15; mere children by most standards.

Don Taylor, director of the division of youth services for the State Department of Human Services, told the committee that society "took what we learned in 10,000 years and threw it away — swift and sure punishment."

It's a national problem that even The Wall Street Journal — a publication mostly dedicated to topics of business and finance — is addressing in its editorial pages.

As well, MEC is dedicating substantial time and resources to explore what can be done to turn the tide of crime, specifically, in Mississippi.

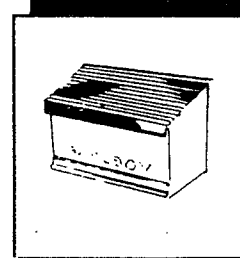

Sadly, preliminary research has led the committee to deal with the state's youth because that's where the biggest problem seems to lie. The committee is focusing on the juvenile justice system to develop strategies that might create a better future for the majority of Mississippi's youth who are law-abiding, promising young citizens of the state.

Some might feel that this is an issue to be left to the Department of Public Safety, or to the politicians and government leaders — not so. It's everyone's problem.

Mississippi, like the rest of the country, has reached a time of crisis, and like any other time of crisis in this nation, everyone — parents, teachers, politicians, and yes, business leaders — must join to do his part.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Student concerned over school transfer

Dear Editor,

I'm going to move from Waveland Elementary school to North Bay just because Waveland Elementary is not going to let Bay St. Louis people go to Waveland Elementary.

And even worse is that only about five or six friends of mine are going. I feel mad about this.

Plus they don't have a teacher to teach me. I'm in the third grade.

Do you think that I can stay for one more year and stay with my friends and then go to Middle School?

The End.

Zachary Ferry
P.S. Can you please help me?

Resident objects to moving students

Dear Editor,

I am appalled about the events happening at Waveland Elementary School.

Due to a lack of vision by the Bay-Waveland school board and the superintendent of education, we now have an overcrowding of our elementary classrooms.

Some 80 or so children must now leave their teachers, classmates and school to be transferred to North Bay Elementary.

Lots of these kids have been in class together for two, three or four years. They must now leave friends behind to make way for people coming into the area.

Last year, the school board recognized overcrowding of the bus system, but they did not think of overcrowding of the classrooms.

If they had vision, insight or knowledge, they would have seen a need for a millage increase, asked for it, and received it!

All parents, residents and school children should contact the school board and voice distaste and outrage for the way our schools are run.

Residents of Bay St. Louis should also call Mayor Eddie Farve and their councilmen to find out why the school board has no vision.

People of Waveland, let your heart and vote speak for you in the next school board election.

I live in Bay St. Louis, and what goes on in Biloxi schools should not affect me or my children.

Speak out now! Call these people listed below now!

Jim Wilcox 467-2430
David Turcotte 466-9400
Tracy Joseph 467-6346

BREWER'S WORLD

By Jimmie Brewer

Good morning friends, readers, golfers, do-gooders and Cubans. I thought I'd throw that last group in, as it looks as though there may be a few of them milling around the South in the future. To those I say "Welcome to the land of fun. Use it, but don't abuse it."

Folks, I don't know what it is with me or this place where I live, but I cannot even walk out of my door without having FUN!

Once again I managed to utilize every second of this past weekend to take in every inch of fun available on the Coast.

The weekend started innocently enough: Just myself, Mary and two of our friends, Carl and Toni, sun tanning and trading life's experiences on the beautiful beaches of Gulf Shores, Ala.

The company couldn't have been better. To look at Carl, you would swear he just got off a movie set somewhere in Hollywood. Here's a dude at least a half a century old, sporting shoulder-length, snow-white hair, dark sun glasses and walking around with a perpetual smile and calling everybody BABE.

So there we were, watching the waves crash on the beach and drinking in every bit of the afternoon sun. Suddenly Carl gets this great idea. The conversation went something like this:

Carl turns to me and says: "Let's go rent us some rafts, head for the high seas and rescue some Cubans."

(I'm not kidding, that's what he said).

My first thought was that the combination of five or six hours in the blinding sun combined with some beach beverages had somehow short-circuited his rationale.

My reply was, "Sure, Carl, I haven't had a good cigar in some time now."

Before I knew it I was walking out of the gift shop toting a $1.99 undersized pool raft complete with colorful flowers.

Carl, who runs seven miles a day and is in great shape, was ready and eager to tackle the four- or five-foot waves and the powerful undertow that awaited us in the Gulf.

I knew I was in trouble when after 30 minutes of blowing air into my mattress I was only able to slightly inflate the pillow part of it.

Finally, with great effort, I was ready for the journey. We kissed our beach babes farewell, lit up a cigarette and started for Cuba.

That is when things started to get a little spooky. First of all, have you ever tried getting on an air mattress in four-foot seas? It's kind of like wrestling an alligator in a wind tunnel.

Finally I had managed to somewhat straddle my craft and began furiously paddling in an attempt at catching up with Carl.

When I could no longer paddle due to exhaustion (about five minutes) I gazed back towards the beach to see how far my efforts had taken me.

At that very second a tidal wave crashed down upon me, and when it was done thrashing me underwater like a rag doll in a garbage disposal, it spit me up on the beach a few feet away from my beach chair where I remained the rest of the day.

Praise for do-gooders this week goes out to all of the dudes and dudettes who commit random acts of kindness. Peace.

Barr receives accolades

Bobbie Barr, a volunteer coordinator in Bay St. Louis, is one of eight Mississippians to be honored for contributions to the state juvenile justice system.

Barr received the Most Distinguished Juvenile Justice Volunteer Award for "giving freely and selflessly of her resources for the cause of juvenile justice."

The award was presented at the recent statewide juvenile justice conference in Biloxi.

"This was one of the most productive of the annual juvenile justice conferences," said Donald O'Cain, executive director, Mississippi Division of Public Safety Planning.

"Those attending recognized that the need for solutions to the juvenile crime problem was urgent, and they dedicated themselves to a 'how to' learning experience with some of the foremost authorities in the juvenile justice field."

The three-day conference was sponsored by the Mississippi Judicial College and the University of Mississippi Department of Social Work in association with the Division of Public Safety Planning and the state Juvenile Justice Advisory Group.

The Rebels won the coin toss and elected to receive the first kickoff.

The Rebels started their first drive deep in their own territory at the 8-yard line. On the first down they gained no yardage.

On second down, the Rebels advanced from the 8 to the 22-yard line for a gain of 14 and a first down.

The Rebels waited until the third down to explode against the Hawks with a 74-yard touchdown run with 9:22 left in the first quarter. The kick was good and the Rebels led the Hawks 7-0.

The Hawks were unable to advance the ball on their next possession and were forced to punt the ball away. George County took the ball at their own 40.

George County lost 4, bringing them back to their own 36 on the first down. They then advanced 5, bringing them up to their own 41 on second down.

The Rebels, on third down, advanced across the 50 to the Hawks' 49-yard line for a gain of 10 and the first down.

Rebels gained yardage, but were pushed back by penalties and a strong Hawk defense. They were forced to punt the ball away to Hancock.

The Hawks started their drive deep in their own territory at the 10-yard line and were able to advance to the Rebel's 48 with a completed pass to Kane McRaney for a 15-yard gain and short yardage runs by J.J. Hays and Bradley Perniciaro.

Scramble

Hawk halfback J.J. Hay looks for an opening to break through as he carries for Hancock in Friday's 17-7 loss to the George County Rebels. (Echo staff photo by Sharon Saucier)

However, the Hawks lost the ball to the Rebels and the drive ended with George county starting with good field position at their own 46 to end the first quarter.

The Rebels worked methodically and got inside Hawk territory. Rebel quarterback Jonathan Burge went to the air, completing a pass to J.W. Howard to bring George county to the Hawks' 34-yard line, and was brought down by Hancock's Cuevas.

The Rebels advanced to the Hawk 14, but could not move beyond and lost the ball on downs. Hancock recovered possession at their own 14.

The Hawks could not advance on the possession and were forced to punt the ball away from the 14. The ball was punted to the Rebel's 40-yard line where the ball was downed.

The Rebels advanced the ball 2 yards on the first down and on second decided to pass. The pass was intercepted at the Hancock 18-yard line by Cuevas, who was hurt on the play.

He received a helmet to the knee and had to be helped from the field with 5:55 left in the first half.

Billy Lee and Hays advanced the ball aggressively for Hancock, achieving six first downs on the Hawk drive. Lee and Hays moved the ball to within inches of a touchdown.

Then, with 29 seconds left in the half, Hays busted through the Rebel defense and scored the touchdown.

The kick by Antonio Carillo was good, and at the end of the first half the score was tied at 7-7.

George County couldn't advance and was forced to punt away their first possession of the second half.

Then with 11:09 in the third quarter, Hancock fumbled, but recovered the ball.

Following an incomplete pass and the fumble, Hancock was also forced to punt.

George County started the possession at their own 49-yard line. The Hancock defense held the Rebels in check and they were also forced to punt.

Several possessions later and several punts later for each team, George County came alive and scored a touchdown that was called back due to a penalty.

The Rebels decided to go for a field goal, which was good, with 3:20 left in the third quarter.

The score was now 10-7, George County.

Hancock's possession was short-lived when on third down the Hancock quarterback threw an interception with 2:15 left in the third. Hays was hurt on this play, but would return later in the game.

George County couldn't capitalize on the Hawks' mistake and was forced to punt. This was the turning point in the game, according to Gaudin.

A roughing the kicker penalty was called against Hancock and George County received the first down. Several consecutive penalties were called against Hancock to advance the Rebels, who couldn't battle the Hawks on the ground.

The Rebels scored again with 10:40 left in the fourth quarter. The kick was good, and George County was leading by a score of 17-7.

"I am proud of my team. They have nothing to be ashamed of. They played their hearts out for me tonight and I love them for it. They are doing what I told them to do and that is get better with each game," Gaudin said.

Hancock will face the Picayune Maroon Tide Friday at 7:30 in Picayune.

Warriors defeat Rocks 29-13

BY JOSEPH W. GEX II

There was much hoopla surrounding the game this week against the Oak Grove Warriors. The Rocks had ended a 25-game losing streak; Dr. Ryan was being tossed into the Bay; and the Rocks were trying to extend their winning streak to two games.

However, on this September night, it just wasn't meant to be. The Rocks fell to 1-1 on the season with a 29-13 loss to the Oak Grove Warriors.

The Rocks won the toss and elected to take the ball first. SSC didn't move the ball on the first series and went three plays and punted for the first time this year.

The Warriors didn't waste any time moving the ball. Oak Grove's quarterback Ole Williams had runs of 12 and 3 yards. Warrior runningback James Griffith scampered around the end for 13. Two plays later Griffith crossed the goal line for a 2-yard TD run with 7:42 left in the first quarter.

The Warriors faked the PAT and Trey Light went in untouched for the two points. The score was 8-0 in favor of the Warriors.

The Rocks readjusted quickly after the ensuing kickoff. Fullback Chris Middleton bulled his way for 9. On the next play, senior QB Nate Middleton went to the air, hitting Brooks Quinlan for a 12-yard gain.

As Quinlan was being tackled he lateraled the ball to a streaking Brandon Benoit for a 42-yard TD run with 6:31 left in the first quarter. The Rocks two-point conversion failed and the score was 8-6 in favor of the Warriors.

The Warriors wasted no time to establish a comfortable lead on this possession. The Warriors went back to their running game with gains of 2 and 1 before Warrior QB Williams broke a run for 12.

Williams then handed off to Griffith who scooted 65 yards for his second TD of the night with 5:05 to go in the quarter. Eric Langston's PAT was good, making the score 15-6.

The Rocks had minimal gains before going back to the air. Middleton unleashed a pass intended for Benoit. The pass was overthrown, but Benoit made an incredible layout attempt in the end zone but couldn't hang on. The Rocks turned the ball over on downs.

The Warriors were stripped of the ball when LB Jon Renaudin recovered a fumble on Oak Grove's first play of the series. Nate Middleton ended the first quarter with a gain of 9. Middleton again called his own number on an option and took the Rocks down inside the Warrior 10.

Middleton hit Benoit for a 10-yard TD strike with 9:59 to go in the half. Billy Dorgan's PAT attempt was good, making the score 15-13.

The Warriors stuck with their running game. Williams scampered for 14 yards, and RB Jon Hopson gained 9 as Corey Charles tackled him. David Bell threw Williams for a 2-yard loss and Renaudin recovered a loose ball.

Middleton gained 19 on an option. The Rocks had short gains by Quinlan and Benoit before they had to punt.

After small gains, the Warriors went to the air with a pass that was intercepted by Nate Middleton.

Correy Gex came in to lead the Rocks at the end of the half. Time expired on Gex as the Rocks attempted to put the ball in the air for another score.

Oak Grove opened the second half with an 11-yard run by Griffith, but the warriors had to punt three plays later.

Benoit swepted around the end and had open field ahead of Rocks—Page 7A downed the visiting 3-A Vancleave Bulldogs 28-12.

The game was a shutout until well into the fourth quarter for the Pirates, who exploded onto the field with their first score less than 30 seconds into the game. Pass Christian kicked on to Vancleave, who fumbled. Brian Wilson recovered. On the next play, a pass to Pirate Leonard Ward was complete for 6. The PAT kick was good, making the score 7-0 with 11:33 on the first quarter clock.

The Bulldogs incurred a penalty during the PAT attempt, but the Pirates chose to take it on the ensuing kickoff. The ball was moved 15 yards closer to Vancleave territory, then kicked. The ball was held at the Vancleave 18.

After three plays that netted the Bulldogs only 1 yard, Vancleave punted. The ball stopped at the Pirate 38. However, a clipping penalty against Pass Christian on the punt gave possession back to Vancleave.

The break proved futile, and Vancleave punted again after three more plays.

The ball went out at the Pirate 39. In two plays, Pirate Darrell Biggs advanced the home team to the Bulldog 30. On the next play, Pirate Willie James snagged a pass for another PCHS touchdown. The Pirates faked a kick and tried for a two-point conversion, but the Bulldogs halted the advance, so the score stayed at 13-0 with 7:12 to go in the first quarter.

Vancleave took the following kick at the 22 and advanced to the 30 before being stopped. After a 2-yard gain, they lost 7 yards on a fumble when QB Jeffrey White was sacked. He recovered at the 25.

On the next play, Vancleave lost possession and the Pirates widened the gap when Brian Wilson intercepted a Bulldog pass for another Pirate TD. The point-after kick was good, taking the score to 20-0 with 5:38 to go.

The rest of the quarter was spent with the two squads vainly trying to score. It ended with the Bulldogs in possession deep in Pirate territory.

Vancleave started the second quarter within scoring range at the Pirate 15, but couldn't break through the PCHS defense. The Pirates regained the ball on a punt, but lost it on a fumble after two plays.

The first few minutes' play set the pace for the rest of the quarter — a snail's pace. Neither squad was able to score, and both were haunted by fumbles and penalties.

The only potentially spectacular play came during the Pirates' fourth possession. Forced to punt, the Pirates were about to turn the ball over to Vancleave. The snap sailed over kicker Ricky Lewis's head, but he retrieved the ball and shot off a desperate pass, which found its way to James, who ran it in for a touchdown of at least 70 yards.

However, the TD was called back because of an illegal man downfield penalty. The punt was set up again, but Lewis faked it and ran the ball.

Unfortunately, he didn't gain enough for a first down, and the Bulldogs took over on downs. One the next play, though, they gave the ball back by putting a pass into Leonard Ward's arms instead of their own receiver's. The half ended with the Pirates in possession and in the lead 20-0.

Pass Christian took the opening kick of the second half and mounted a drive that lasted nine plays before the Pirates were forced to punt. The kick rolled into the end zone, putting the ball at the Vancleave 20.

The Bulldogs gained 3, lost 7, then lost the ball in the next three plays. On the third play, Pirate Henry Labat intercepted a pass and was brought down at the Vancleave 10. After a short gain and a shorter loss by Biggs on the next two plays, Lewis ran the ball in to make the score Pirates 26, Bulldogs zip. A failed PAT kick left the score at 26-0 with 4:16 on the third quarter clock.

Vancleave took the ensuing kick and moved it to their own 28. Their drive lasted 10 plays, but ended in a net loss of 6 yards because of penalties, incomplete passes and quarterback sacks. Forced to punt, the Bulldogs booted the ball to the Pirate 45.

The Pirates ran out the quarter clock in a drive equally as futile as the Bulldogs', but kept possession to start the fourth quarter. Three plays into the final period, however, they were forced to punt. Bulldog Michael Barton caught the ball at the Vancleave 20, but Labat slammed into him to stop him cold.

After one completed pass, the Bulldogs fumbled on the next play. The Pirates took over at the Vancleave 27, then advanced to the 13, but got pulled back to the 35 on a penalty. Three incomplete pass attempts by the Pirates forced a punt, but a declined penalty against the Pirates gave the Bulldogs the ball at their own 20 on a turnover.

That started the drive that ended the Pirates' shutout. Combining passes with running plays — and aided by a Pirate penalty — the Bulldogs held on for eight plays to score. Their two-point conversion attempt failed, and the score stood at 26-6 with 7:25 left in the game.

Their ensuing onside kick dribbled to the Bulldog 46. The Pirates' short-lived and fruitless drive gave possession back to the Bulldogs, who mounted another extended drive that ended in Vancleave's only other score. Again combining running and throwing, the visitors drove for 11 plays to score with 1:59 left in the game. Another failed two-point attempt sealed the score at 26-12.

The teams swapped possession two times each in the last two minutes, but the score was settled.

"I'm just glad this is over," Pirate head coach Joseph Brown said after the game. "We started trying to substitute players, to give them some game time, and that's when we started making mistakes."

"It took us a whole quarter to recover. We dropped enough balls to build a pyramid."

"I'm proud of the way the kids played, though. They did a good job, as did coaches Glenn Williams and Otis Gates, and ballboys Sidney Brown, my son, and Justin Burton."

The 2-0 Pirates travel across the bay to face the 1-0 4-A Bay St. Louis Tigers Friday. Kickoff is 7:30 p.m. at J.D. McCollough Stadium.

him as he fumbled the ball switching arms. Benoit's run gained 27. Benoit came back with a run of 12 yards before the Rocks had to punt.

The Warriors pounded the ball out on the ground. Billy Ratcliff gained 15 for the Warriors on an off-tackle play.

The Warriors made little progress before lining up to punt. Oak Grove called a fake punt but the play was busted as Griffith fumbled the ball in the backfield and was tackled by a host of red jerseys.

The Rocks were unable to move the ball far on three plays before Dorgan lined up for 38-yard field goal attempt that was no good.

Warrior RB Hopson rambled for 15 yards and Light gained 13. Williams hit Fleetwood Loustaint for a 24-yard gain to the Rock 1. Williams scored on a 1-yard QB sneak up the middle with 9:55 to go in the fourth quarter.

The PAT attempt by Langston was good, making the score 22-13.

The Rocks wasted no time setting up a drive with Benoit scampering for 18 yards. Nate Middleton hit Freddie McPherson for 15. Benoit ran another 7 while Chris Middleton gained 5 and a first down. The Rocks fumbled on an option the next play, ending the Rock drive.

Oak Grove proceeded to pound out the yards gaining 12, 13, and 7 by Williams keeping on option plays.

Griffith scampered for 25 around the end. Langston came on to attempt a 31-yard field goal. His attempt was short and no good.

The Rocks had one more shot. Gex came in to establish a passing game. The Rocks tried the hook and lateral, and pulled in 12 yards with Gex completing the pass to Quinlan. Quinlan lateraled to Benoit for the gain.

Gex kept the ball for 4 and then unleashed a long pass that was intended for McPherson but was overthrown. The Rocks turned the ball over on downs.

With 49 seconds to go in the game, Robert Gillespie scored on a 35-yard run. The PAT by Langston was good, making the final score 29-13.

Coach Brannon LeBlanc stated, "Benoit had a good game for us. We were not able to execute at the critical times coupled with Oak Grove's outstanding defense."

He continued, "We are still a young team and will get better with experience as the season goes on. Our goal is to be ready for the district opponents, that's where it all counts."

The Rocks had a total of 166 yards rushing, while Oak Grove tallied 383. Benoit was the top rusher for the Rocks with 123 yards. Griffith rushed for 147 yards for Oak Grove.

The Rocks had 74 yards through the air while Oak Grove had only 29. Oak Grove ran up 412 yards total offense with the Rocks tallying 240. Benoit has 207 yards total rushing on the season to lead the Rocks.

The Rocks will travel to Biloxi next week to take on the Indians. Game time is slated for 7:30 p.m.

'Day of Caring' planned to kick off UW campaign

The United Way of South Mississippi will kick off its 1994 fund-raising campaign with a Day of Caring on Sept. 10.

The Day of Caring is a one-day event involving volunteers in hands-on group projects for United Way agencies. Volunteers from the local community will perform such tasks as building playgrounds, painting, grounds cleanup and basic repairs.

Agencies chosen to benefit from the Day of Caring include Hancock County Human Resource Agency/Child Development Center, Gulfport Salvation Army, North Gulfport Good Deeds Association, Harrison County Mental Health Association, Family/Child Center, Moore Community House, and Pearl River Child Abuse Education Council.

"We want to get away from the standard kickoff banquet," states Lisa Clements, director of community relations.

"Through these activities participants will see firsthand the services provided by United Way agencies and will receive hands-on experience in volunteer efforts to address community problems."

The day will end with a celebration for volunteers and agency clients.

"We want the volunteers to meet the clients whom they have helped and to share in their excitement," explains Clements.

Steve Howard is chairing the event for Harrison County; Dave Treutel Jr. for Hancock County; and Avis Hayes for Pearl River County.

Anyone interested in participating in the first Day of Caring may call United Way at 863-4884.

Countywide cleanup set for September 17

The Hancock County Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring its bi-annual countywide cleanup Saturday, Sept. 17.

The Chamber is asking all of its members and the entire community to assist in the clean-up efforts by picking up litter and debris around their businesses, homes, roadways and area beaches.

Many have already made a commitment to help beautify our county as a number of school clubs, civic organizations, businesses and many others are involved in publicity, registration and adopting roadways in their neighborhoods.

"In a lot of instances, the only impression that lasts is the first one made," Chamber executive director Cindy Vernon said.

"For this very reason, we want to make certain that the first one is a good one by making sure that litter is in its place, not along the roadways or beaches.

"Please join in these efforts to help clean up Hancock County by contacting the Chamber office at 467-9048 to register for the cleanup or by showing up at one of the registration points that will be set up throughout the county on the morning of the cleanup."

Registration points will be set up at the Save Our Children Center, the Garfield Lader Memorial Pier, Buccaneer State Park, Diamondhead, Pearllington, Leetown/White Cypress, Shifalo Baptist Church (Hwy. 603-Kiln) and the Hotel Reed lawn on Ullman Avenue. These locations will be open from 8 to 9:30 a.m. for registration.

Trash bags will be provided at registration. Participants will be given a canvas tote bag and treated to a free hot dog and coke afterwards as tokens of appreciation for their efforts to make Hancock County the best place to live, work and play.

The tote bags will be given out on a first-come, first-serve basis due to a limited supply, and will only be available on the morning of the cleanup at the registration points while supplies last.

The hot dogs and cokes will be available at the Garfield Lader Memorial Pier in Waveland at noon.

For information on the cleanup or to pre-register, please call the Chamber at 467-9048, or stop by 412 Hwy. 90, Suite 6, Colonial Plaza in Bay St. Louis.

Thanks To You It Works...For All Of Us

United Way sets 1994 goal

United Way of South Mississippi has set its goal at $1,150,000 for its fall 1994 campaign which will kick off Sept. 7 and run through Nov. 4.

"We had a goal of $1 million last year and exceeded it by $100,000," explains Aletha Burge, executive director.

"With the gaming business and increased tourism in our area, we are seeing a rise in our economy. With the continued support of our major corporations along with the gaming industry, we feel confident we will exceed this goal."

"We have a great group of volunteers this year," said Rick Stewart, South Central Bell who is serving as UWSM campaign chair.

"We've got a lot of new and exciting events happening this year, and are looking forward to a very successful campaign."

United Way of South Mississippi has 48 member agencies serving Harrison, Hancock and Pearl River counties.

COMMUNITY SERVICES

United Way tops in class

United Way of South Mississippi had the largest percentage increase in its Fall 1993 campaign than any United Way organization its size.

United Way of South Mississippi is classified as a Metro 4, which is a United Way that administers a campaign between one to two million dollars.

United Way of South Mississippi had a goal of $1 million for its Fall 1993 campaign and surpassed this goal by $100,000. This was a 31.2 percent increase over the Fall 1992 campaign.

"This success is due to the outstanding support we had from the community last year," says Hilda Bourg, past president.

"We would like to thank our donors for making this success possible."

Bourg expresses gratitude to the many volunteers of the organization.

"We had a super campaign last year," states Bourg.

"The credit is due to the exceptional group of volunteers we had working with us last year. We truly could not have done it without each one of them."

The United Way of South Mississippi has set its goal for the 1994 Fall campaign at $1,150,000.

Chamber encouraging relocation of education center

The Hancock County Chamber of Commerce announces efforts to recruit the J.L. Scott Marine Education Center to relocate their facilities to Hancock County.

The proposed site is a tract of land adjacent to wetlands near Buccaneer State Park. The Chamber, Hancock County Board of Supervisors and the City of Waveland are confident that this is the most logical site selection in that Buccaneer already has an established visitor base far exceeding that of the Marine Education Center, the proximity to deep water draft for the research vessel is excellent, and the Naval Research Laboratory at Stennis Space Center is a mere 15 minute drive.

Local officials at Buccaneer State Park are also working with the Chamber on this endeavor as the two facilities would complement each other well.

The J.L. Scott Marine Education Center provides space for some of the research, academic and service activities of the Gulf Coast Research Laboratory as well as providing educational information on the Mississippi coastal environment and its inhabitants.

Chamber officials are very excited about this project and feel that the county has a good chance at being selected as the new home for the center.

In order to be successful, there needs to be countywide support for these efforts. Anyone interested in learning more about the J.L. Scott Marine Education Center may contact the Chamber Office at 467-9048.

Tidelands revenue soars to $3.2 million; slated to improve fishing, protect shoreline

Secretary of State Dick Molpus announced that $3,233,942 is going to the new Department of Marine Resources from revenues on 18 tidelands leases generated during Fiscal Year 1994.

The funding, mandated by the Tidelands Act of 1989, will be used to enhance wildlife habitat all along the Coast, expand artificial reef projects, acquire land to protect against development, and provide additional new piers and public access to the water and beaches, aid Dave Ruple, a DMR spokesman.

"This record revenue has occurred because we continue to negotiate new tidelands leases, especially for commercial use," said Molpus, whose office administers the Public Trust Tidelands Fund. A year ago, Molpus predicted a substantial increase in revenue during the 1994 fiscal year.

In Fiscal Year 1993, revenue to the then-Bureau of Marine Resources was $433,759 on nine leases.

Last year, BMR said it would use the money to acquire additional wetlands, match federal grants to begin work on an estuarine research reserve in Jackson County, build artificial reefs, and develop a plan for a docking facility for seafood fishermen displaced by casinos.

Hugh Keating of Gulfport, chairman of Molpus' advisory commission that recommended the Tidelands Act to the Legislature, said, "The focus of the tidelands program is to preserve this land for use by the public for navigation, water-related commerce, fisheries, the traditional beach activities, and to promote orderly economic development — as well as to ensure that the land is protected and conserved in its natural state."

Ruple said DMR will use the funds for research, education, to match federal grants, and to hire additional staff to assist with land acquisition for public access.

The Tidelands Act stipulates uses for the lease revenues, including:

— To fund DMR programs to protect tidelands, build recreational facilities, create educational opportunities, as well as ensure public access to tidelands; and — To pay to the local taxing authorities' lost ad valorem taxes, if there are any.

Mississippi Power sets all-time energy demand

"This week's high temperatures in southeast Mississippi have caused the demand for electricity to reach record breaking levels," said Mississippi Power spokesman Buddy Eller.

"At 3 p.m. on Tuesday, Aug. 30, Mississippi Power set an all-time record demand for electricity."

The new record demand is 1,874,000 kilowatts, surpassing the previous all-time record demand set on August 19, 1993, by 2,000 kilowatts.

Eller said the company's electric system power supply remains in good condition and that no problems are anticipated in meeting the region's continuing high demand for electricity.

"As long as we have consecutive days of high temperatures, the demand for electricity is likely to remain high," he said.

Mississippi Power serves more than 181,000 customers in 23 counties in southeast Mississippi. Mississippi Power is a member of The Southern Company, which serves more than 11 million people in the southeastern United States.

The 29th International Volksmarch for the Magnolia State Volkssport Club will be Saturday, Sept. 10 and Sunday, Sept. 11 at the beach park behind the Pass Christian Chamber of Commerce.

Literally translated from German, volkssport means "march of the people," and this is one of several volkssport events designed for fun and fitness, in which participants walk at their own pace without competition.

The event is open to the public, and family participation is encouraged. Children under 12 must be accompanied by an adult. Pets must be kept on a leash.

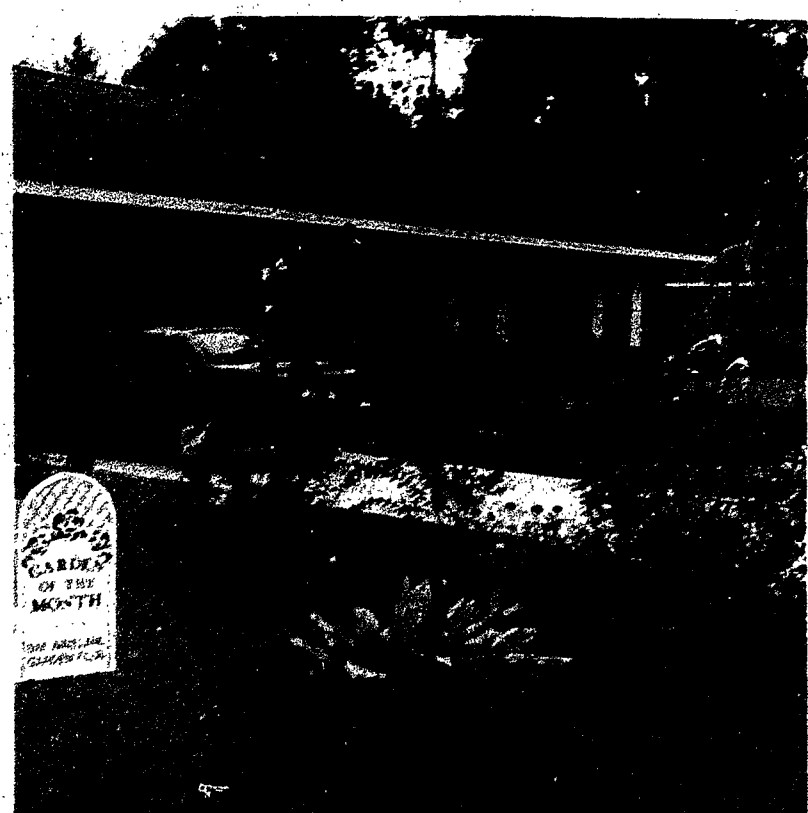

Registration begins at 8 a.m. Sept. 10 and 11 and continues until noon. All participants must be finished by 3 p.m.
